As We Will Be

It began in the minds of men, as do all things. From the imaginings of the architects, Richard Gahr High School has emerged into one of the most modern and attractive schools in California. Since September, we have watched the gradual transformation from an incomplete, barren school plant into one as yet incomplete, but no longer barren. Fresh green grass is growing, brightly-colored flowers are blooming, and soon-to-be-tall trees are growing. The architect's dream is fast becoming a reality.

With the growth of our physical facilities, comes the growth of pride in our school. With the growth of pride in our school, comes the incentive to make it the best all-around high school of any high school that exists. We are well on our way to achieving our goal.

Dedication

DIAWV

As a symbol of what we, as Gladiators, should strive toward, she stands tall. Her encouragement and dedication helped lead her husband on to a career which has benefited untold numbers. The ideals she shared with her husband have helped to raise the level of our education. As her husband believed, so she believes in the importance of education and in the necessity of a good one. For this reason she has given of herself to the teaching profession and has done everything possible to improve the education of those students with whom she works.

However, her devotion to education did not overshadow her devotion to her family. A wife and mother first, she still found time for a career as an educator.

We share with her our name, and we hope to share with her a dedication to our school, a strong belief in its future, and the confidence that we can help build our school into one worthy of its name. We must make Richard Gahr High School THE school above all others.

To Mrs. Richard Gahr we dedicate our first annual, Memoriae Aureae.
Our "golden memories" will ever be preserved in this book.

Principal's Message

Enclosed within the covers of this annual is a pictorial record of the Richard Gahr Gladiators' first year. I hope a feeling of pride, satisfaction, and respect will come to you as you look through these pages. You have endured the growing pains of construction, dust, mud, and detours with a fine show of spirit. You can feel proud of the part you have played in establishing this school. It is my sincere belief that this book reflects the real spirit of the school and the educator for whom it was named. In the years to come, Memoriae Aureae will aid in preserving many fine memories for you.

The Junior class of Gahr is a united and strong one. Their leadership will set standards for future Juniors. Just as America has been strengthened by good citizens who were formerly of other nations, so Gahr has been strengthened by these Juniors who were formerly good citizens of Artesia, Excelsior, John Glenn and Neff. Their job has just begun, but they have made an impressive start.

Once upon a time an old fairy tale came to life in a new school. The fairy tale was Cinderella, the school was Gahr. Nancy Himes, a fair maiden of this campus, was transformed from a common mortal to "royalty" by a strange bit of magic. This magical force was the popular vote of the student body. A bit of charm and beauty were all the ingredients necessary to cast this spell of enchantment.

Several other fair young damsels-----Becky Svoboda, Gloria Herrema, Lorraine Duran, and Jeanine Johnson were also woven into this web of magic. Possessing all the necessary ingredients, they were henceforth transformed into radiant princesses.

Our First Rally

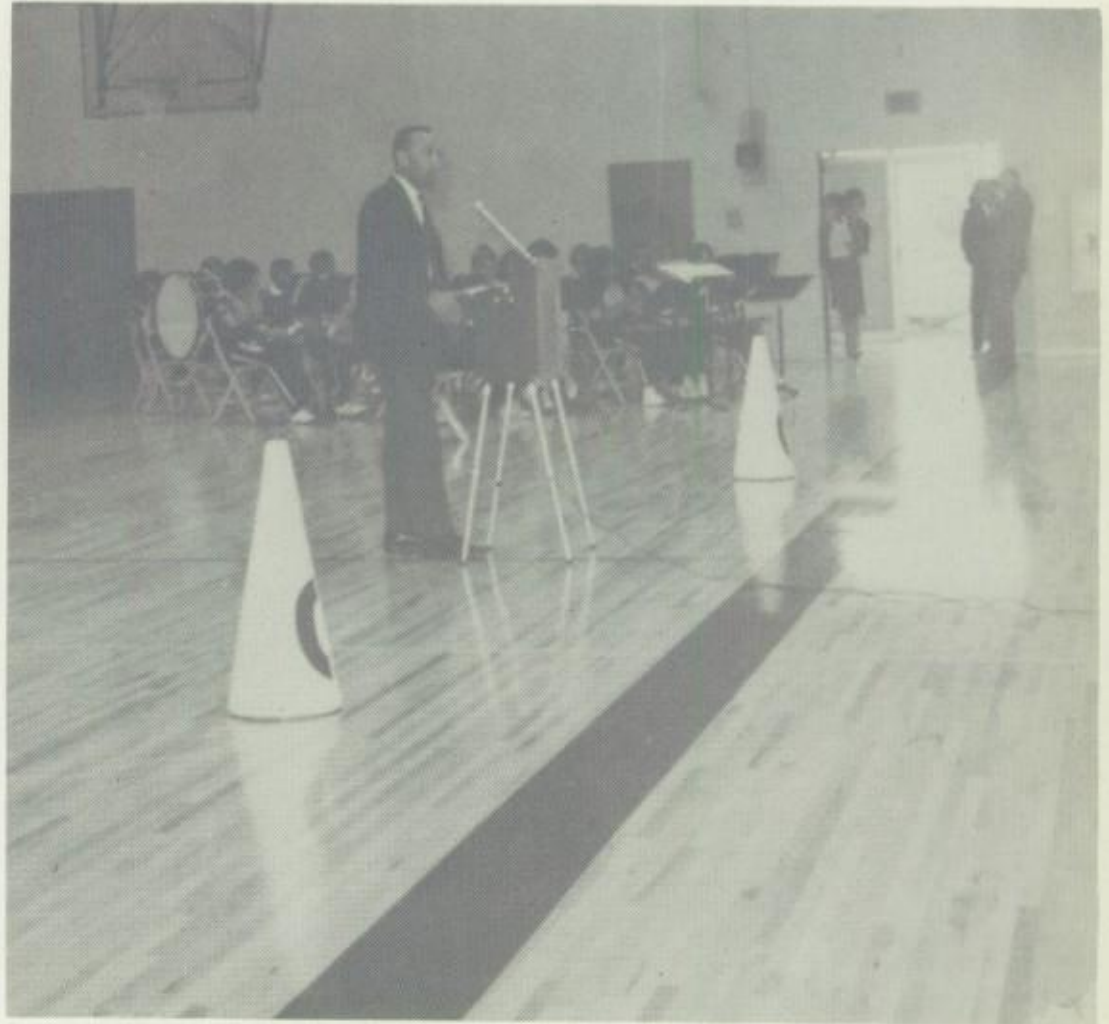

Music from the Gladiator Band welcomed the Gahr Student Body to the first rally in the gym. When all students were seated in the stands, Mr. Redfern encouraged the Gladiators to work toward making Gahr the best school in California. He pointed out how our fine faculty, our modern facilities, and our hardworking students would all unite to achieve this goal.

Our cheerleaders and songleaders, accompanied by our band, introduced the fight song. Leading in the school handclap, our rhythmical football team displayed such perfect coordination that no Gladiator could doubt that these men could work as a team. The boys demonstrated several plays and formations, while their competent coach, Mr. Van Voorhis, explained the intricacies involved.

Mr. Bruhns introduced his cross-country team and explained their work.

The judges for the competition yell were Juniors; strangely enough, the Juniors won.

The singing of the Alma Mater ended the program.

Forum Staff

Since the Gahr Student Body selected the name of Gladiators, the publications have followed suit by selecting titles that follow the Latin theme. The name Forum was chosen for our school newspaper. As the Forum in Rome was where the citizens learned the news, the choice was an appropriate one. Beginning as an inexperienced group, the Forum staff has shown progress with every issue.

Under the superb direction of Mr. Haar, our Gahr Gladiator Band has played at many of our games and has accompanied our drill team for many of their routines. The blue and gold uniforms are now becoming familiar, and so is the figure in white and gold who leads the marching--Majorette Nancy Himes.

Nancy has both ability and experience. She is one more reason for our pride in this organization. Not only does she lead the band when it marches, but she also takes responsibility for calling the signals for the drill team when the two organizations perform together.

With Mr. Haar as director and Nancy as majorette, our Gladiator Band is fast becoming one of the best high school bands in the area.

So Nice to Have You Volunteer!

Our Song Leaders are so proud of their advisor, Miss Kornder, that they have "persuaded" (dragged?) her out on the floor to be photographed during half-time of the Faculty-Varsity game. They wanted to be sure the picture was large enough for all of them to sign.

During the game Marilyn, Janice, and Bonnie led the singing of "Fight Song" and "Alma Mater."

FIFTH ROW: Penny Sandoval, Mickey Webb, Suzanne Payne, Judy Winkler, Beverly Alewyn, Vickie Hix, Paulette Ellis, Janice Winkler, Vera Van De Brake.

A popular and successful group on campus, our Gahr Drill Team has given us good reason to be proud of them. Each member was chosen for attractive appearance, careful grooming, excellent posture, grace and physical coordination, and the ability to do precision marching.

Under the leadership of Miss Kornder, the girls wrote their own constitution, designed their own costumes, organized their own routines, earned a considerable amount of money by selling Christmas decorations and by collecting newspapers, and performed creditably at football and basketball games during the school year.

Outstanding

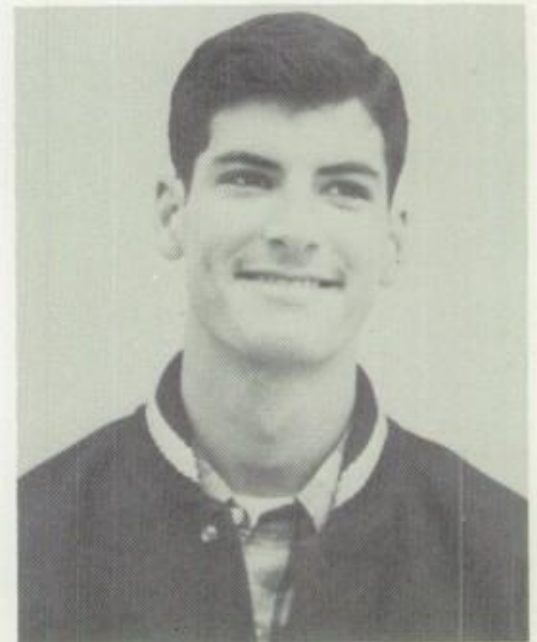

Since we have no seniors this year, we have not chosen the Outstanding Athlete of the Year. Instead we have presented eight.

Gahr is especially proud in presenting these four athletes. All of them have lettered in three sports and have been outstanding in each. Their participation has benefited Gahr, and their performance reflects their pride in our school.

Athletes

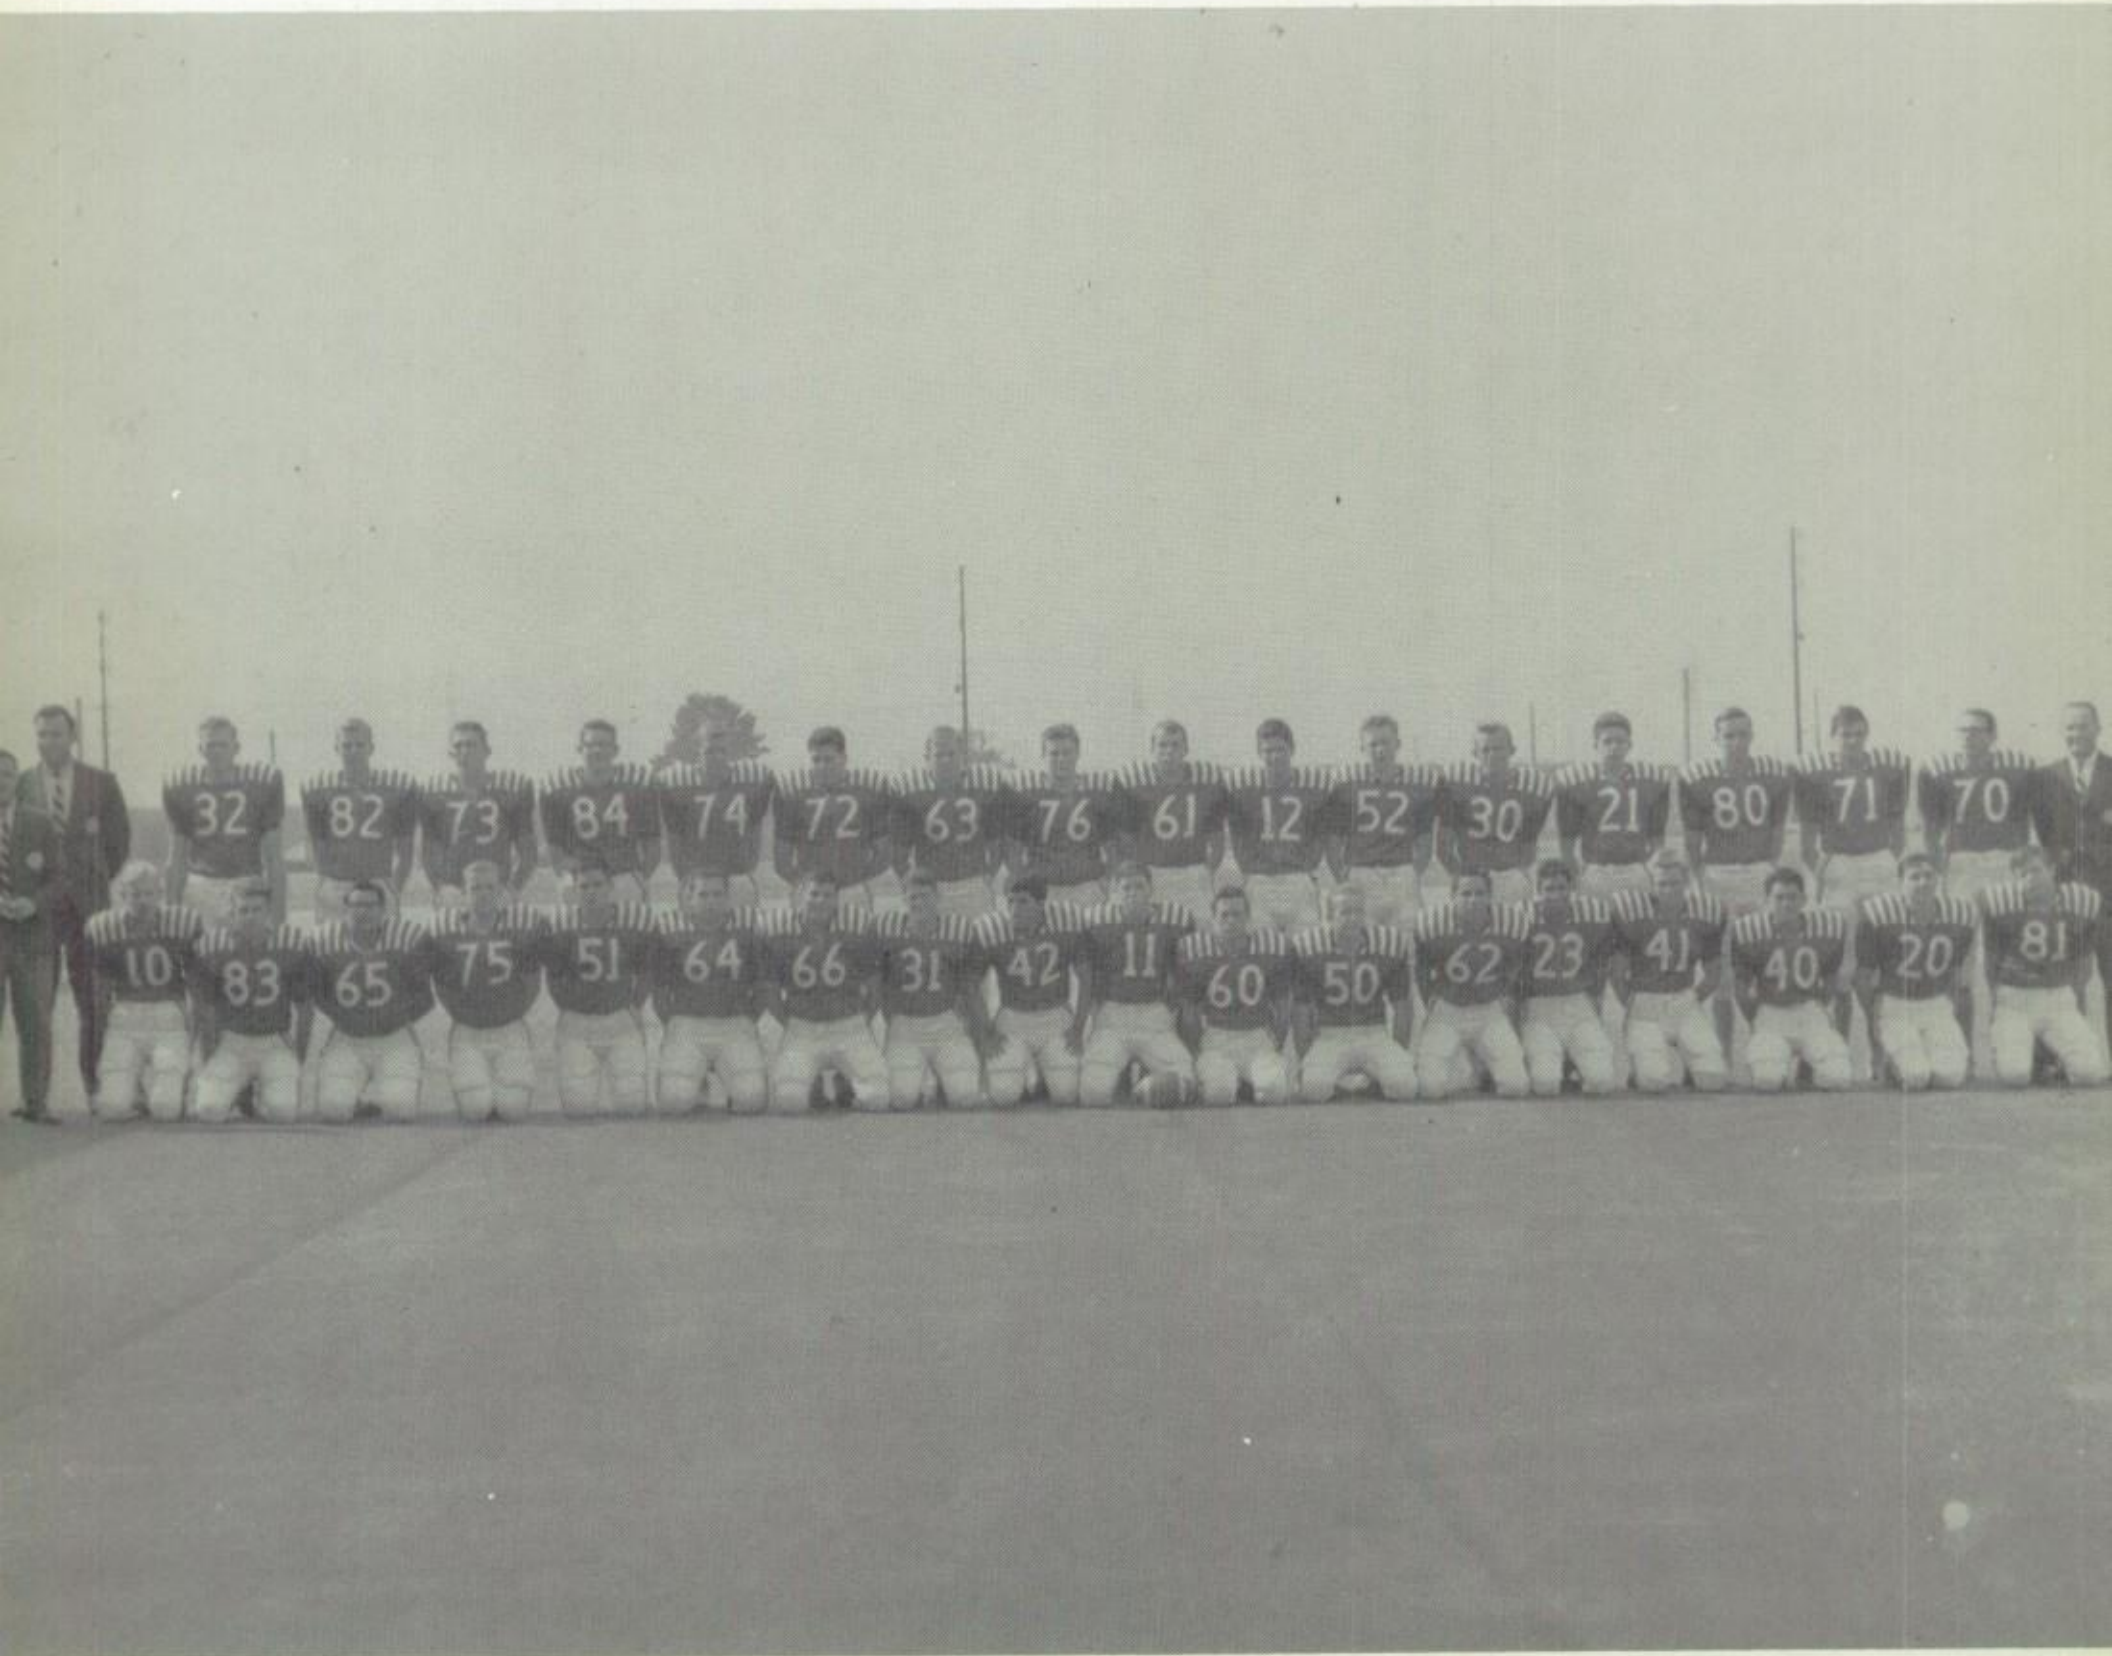

Baseball, track, and tennis are not over, as we go to press. It is possible that outstanding men in these sports have not been given due recognition.

These four athletes, each lettering in two sports, have proved themselves exceptional. They strove for constant improvement, and were cooperative members of their respective teams. Each of these men deserves special recognition.

Varsity Team

M. Mustang, R. Sybesma, G. Uttecht, P. Ziepler, R. Van Dam, J. Yeutter, S. Brandt, H. Johnson, M. Grebow, D. Maxey, G. Hunter, J. Gabler, R. Youderian, G. Ward, A. Gendusa, C. Hetzel, J. Our first Gladiator varsity football team began successfully by winning the first game in the history of Gahr.

Under the exceptional coaching of Mr. Van Voorhis, Mr. McSherry, and Mr. Long, our team fought hard this season and showed much promise as a beginning team. With the continued strong support of our student body combined with the potential of our team, our next season will be victorious.

Second Semester

We had need for a new co-editor at the beginning of the second semester. Suzi Hill accepted the added responsibility. Suzi is also the student who named our annual. Below is a picture of Editor-in-Chief Vickie Hix awarding the certificate for the free yearbook to Suzi.

We wanted a name that followed a Roman theme, inasmuch as our student body had chosen to be called Gladiators. We also wanted our title to indicate that our yearbook contains a record of memories of the "golden" days of high school. Memoriae Aureae is translated from the Latin as "Golden Memories" and meets both qualifications. For this reason we awarded our free "Name the Annual" copy of the yearbook to Suzi Hill.

Where You There?

At the Beginning?

When we got the word?

When we fed the turtles?

When our left-wing minority had their fun?

When we planted our first tree?

When we finally got into our new cafeteria?

When we received the shock of our lifetime?

When the strain became just too much?

When we solved the problems of the world?

When we peeked into the faculty lounge?

Swan Song

We, the editors of Memoriae Aureae, would like to give special thanks to all the people who helped us to make our first yearbook a success.

In a yearbook, photography is very important. For the fine pictures in this book we are indebted to Watson Studios, of Los Angeles and Whittier; to Mr. Totusek, our Assistant Principal; and to Anna Rietkerk and Dean Elliot, two of our juniors who, luckily for us, have made a hobby of photography.

Thank you to Mrs. Williams, our Girls' Vice Principal, for helping to coordinate our official business transactions and financial records.

Thank you to Mrs. Hart, our Adviser, for her supervision and help.

Most of all, thanks to all the members of the Memoriae Aureae staff for giving their time and effort in page-planning, indexing, typing, and copy-writing. (Meeting those deadlines was hard, wasn't it?)

To all of you students who have supported us by buying a copy of Gahr's first yearbook (collector's item, you know), we offer a record of the year our school began--truly a collection of GOLDEN MEMORIES--Memoriae Aureae.
